

Herald Cameramen Tell Their Story

HONOR PRESIDENT ELECT—Brazil's highest honors were rendered to America's "good will" president-elect when a special parliamentary session of the Brazilian senate was called to pay him homage. Above, Senate building and, inset, Dr. Antonio Accredo, its presiding officer. International Newsreel

CUBA'S GIFT TO U. S.—The giant urn, set up in the Rose Garden of West Potomac Park, Washington, D. C., which President Machado of Cuba presented to the United States in honor of Coolidge's visit to Havana. The urn is made from a portion of the column of Maine monument, which was blown down by a hurricane two years ago. International Newsreel

MAKES A HOLE IN ONE—This Seaboard Air Line locomotive careened off a small auto at Wake Forest, N. C., leaped blithely from the rails and invaded a spick and span drug store that happened to be nearby. Now just look at them! International Newsreel

HIS BIGGEST KICK—Governor-elect M. Y. Cooper, of Ohio, doesn't care a rap about bridge or poker or any of the new fangled games. His one weakness is for a bout of old-fashioned dominoes. International Newsreel

RAID CAPITAL STILL—Almost in the shadow of the White House itself, police of the national capital found a huge still, capable of turning out hundreds of gallons of whiskey a day, being full blast. The odor of molasses in the air caused a report to be made to police. Photo shows officers taking an inventory. International Newsreel

NEW FLYING AID—Photo shows Mayor Anthony Prado of Rio de Janeiro wearing the "ornithonco," or Martian transformer, invented by Santos Dumont, famous Brazilian aviator. It is claimed for apparatus that it will aid man to fly as well as a bird. International Newsreel

S-4 TEST SUCCESSFUL—Down and up in 48 hours is record of submarine S-4, "steel coffin" in which 40 drowned a year ago. In safety tests off Block Island, Conn., the ill-fated submersible shown above in an unusual night photo, was sunk to the bottom and raised again in 48 hours by means of "pad eyes" attached to hulk. International Newsreel

PITCHED BATTLE—Scene in Little Rock, Ark., as police closed in on confectionery store where a lone bandit, A. I. Devoe, withstood a two-hour siege. Two of the besiegers were wounded before a well-aimed shot rendered the bandit helpless. He died enroute to a hospital. International Newsreel

AFTER T. R.'S OWN HEART—Photo shows four sets of twins, born to Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Robey, of Washington, D. C., in seven years. They are: Linwood and Helen, 7; Genevieve and Josephine, 18 months; Paul and Pauline, 3; and Clarence and Constance, a week old. In the center, big sister Alice, 16. International Newsreel

AN UNENVIABLE JOB—High up on the famous Tower Bridge of London, this painter seems oblivious to either the dizzy height or the blustery winds whipping about him. It isn't a job for a nervous man. International Newsreel

PROUDEST BOY—For being first youth under 21 to fly across the continent, Dick James (above), 18, of Brooklyn, collected $1,000 in prize money and received a handsome silver cup as well. He's hopeful of being an Army pilot as soon as he is old enough. International Newsreel

SAD CHRISTMAS—Mr. and Mrs. John Re shown with their faithful Nellie, after being evicted from their modest home in East 81st street, New York City. Each is past the three-score mark. International Newsreel

NO PLAYING HOOKEY!—Students of the Ida M. Fisher High School in Miami Beach, Fla., have a 100 per cent. attendance record—as why shouldn't they? Pupils go to school in bathing suits so they can dash for the surf like this after their class in calisthenics. International Newsreel

RACERS' PYRE—Fire of mysterious origin destroyed Laffoon racing stable near Erlanger, Ky. So suddenly did blaze spring up that some 20 horses were burned to death. Loss is set at $125,000. International Newsreel
